4th Days Gathering:

Pleasant View UMC – Abingdon, VA
October 25, 2011 – 6:30 p.m.

Take a right turn on Rt. 11 off of I-81 Exit 13 and drive approximately ½ mile. Church is on the right, across from the airport.

This Gathering is for those looking for a reunion group. Sponsors should bring their pilgrims everyone needs to bring a finger food to share. This is also a time for all to sign up to serve on future Walks.

Next Board Meeting: 10/3/11 at Pleasant View UMC, 7 p.m.

Your Help Is Needed!

The October Women's Emmaus Walk will again be held at Pleasant View United Methodist Church in Abingdon. Many thanks the Pastor and lay leadership of Pleasant View for their continued support of Highlands Emmaus Community!

And once again we will need the support of the entire Highlands Community to pull off this walk. Our Background Chairperson for the men's walk is Bill Ogle and for the women's walk it is Kim Farris-Luke. Please be proactive and reach out to Bill and Kim with your support and volunteer to help out. Don't wait for them to ask. There are many ways to be a part of the upcoming walks:

BACKGROUND: Set up; cleaning up after meals and on Sunday morning before Sunday School; help prepare meals; plate the food; serve meals; attend Send-Off, Candlelight, Closing; or be a part of Entertainment.

AGAPE: Pilgrims and Team alike are always amazed at how an endless supply of food shows up on the Agape Snack Table in the Conference Room! You can bring snacks and drink or help clean and keep the table stocked while the pilgrims are listening to a talk or at a meal; make agape gifts; help distribute those gifts; provide special food for Afterglow; help set up and or clean up Afterglow.

PRAYER: Sign up for the 72-hour prayer vigil (you can sign up online or contact Laura Pepper-Weiler). You can pray anywhere! And don't forget to visit the prayer room at the walk site.

As always, let's make this the best walk ever!

Bill Ogle
